

AUCTION
Friday October 30
10:00 am
1587 Road 230, Emporia, KS

Clyde and Nancy Wilson will sell multigenerational items. Clyde's family has been on this farm since 1873. His grandad was a doctor in Emporia from 1914 to 1960. His Dad was an attorney, farmer, state representative. Will be selling items from them.

COLLECTIBLES

Selling many collectibles from a Peter Wright anvil to WW1 items, Barbie dolls to modern Maude Humphreys.

Childs parade saddle to China and furniture to a older grandfather clock kit. Carraige lamps to crockery and art pottery. Stained glass and teller windows from Katy depot in Emporia to a silk top hat. Wind up clocks to quilts. Old photo's and signed prints (many). Indian blankets and collectibles to costume jewelry and Big Little books. Letters from W. L. White and medical instruments. Baseball cards and twin beds that are brass and iron. Horn art to a cast parlor stove. Fluting iron to adv. Boxes. Replica of Clipper sail ship, 1845. Hand operated meat slicer. Several things from Germany. Many collectible items. Some are dusty and moldy.

A LOT!!!!

Check out the photo's at www.hancockauctionandrealstate.com

TERMS: Cash, check or plastic with 4% fee. Inspection day of auction only.

There are open buildings for protection, but mostly outdoors. Long auction, plan accordingly.

HANCOCK AUCTION AND REAL ESTATE
620.340.5692